THE WORKSHOP

During this very intensive workshop, the 10 participants will tackle the fundamentals of documentary filmmaking and will take the first steps towards becoming independent filmmakers. Following a short period of technical initiation, analysis of reference films, location scouting and writing, everyone then begins shooting a short film based on a common theme. The editing (assisted by professional editors) also allows to assess the essential relationship between filmmaker and editor.

PUBLIC

- For those wishing to gain a first experience of documentary filmmaking with all it entails in terms of the commitment and requirements involved. For those wishing to renew or reassess their documentary filmmaking practice.
- No technical skills required.
- Working languages of the workshop : English, French, regional languages. You have to be able to understand and talk in English.
- Age : 18-35 years old
- Residents of the following countries : Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Serbia.
- 10 participants
- The participation fees are free : the costs are covered by the partners of the project
